AHMEDABAD · WEEKDAY
SCHOOL SLOTS

Where a picnic becomes physical education.

Most school outings are a bus ride, a queue, and a lot of standing around. At Air Maniax the whole day is designed around one thing: every child moving, the entire time.

Thirty thousand square feet — Inflatable Park, Trampoline, Warrior Assault, Super Climber, Zip Zag and Soft Play — all indoors, air-conditioned, and run by trained court monitors who rotate groups through the zones so nobody waits and nobody sits out. Pre-primary classes have MiniManiax, our toddler zone, as their own space — and the rest of the park from 80 cm.

Children come back tired in the best way. Teachers come back with a class that did something, not one that watched something.

WHY MOVEMENT MATTERS

60 min

a day of moderate-to-vigorous activity is the WHO recommendation for ages 5–17. Most Indian schoolchildren get nowhere near it.

35–40 min

is one PT period, once or twice a week — for the fraction of the class actually moving.

3 hours of continuous activity in a single Air Maniax visit: jumping, climbing, balancing, sprinting, hanging, landing.

0 screens

Nothing to look at except each other and the next challenge. A whole day without a screen is the point.

- Whole-body, load-bearing exercise. Trampolining, climbing and obstacle play build bone density, core strength, cardiovascular endurance and proprioception — the body's sense of where it is in space — at the age when these develop fastest.
- Rebound exercise is unusually efficient. NASA-studied: more cardiovascular benefit for the same effort than running on a flat surface.
- Movement improves the classroom. Physical activity is consistently linked to better attention, mood and working memory in school-age children. The day after an active outing is not a lost day.
- India's own report card grades children's physical activity a D. A school that puts three hours of movement on the calendar is doing something about it.

"MORE PHYSICAL ACTIVITY IN ONE VISIT THAN MOST CHILDREN GET IN A FORTNIGHT OF SCHOOL."

THE AIR MANIAX SCHOOL DAY, IN ONE LINE

ALIGNED WITH NEP 2020

4.26

BAGLESS DAYS

A full day of experiential activity that counts towards the ten bagless days NEP recommends each year.

4.2

ACTIVITY-BASED LEARNING

Challenges that teach through doing: balance, timing, risk-judgement, teamwork.

4.6

EXPERIENTIAL LEARNING

Children discover what their bodies can do by trying, failing safely, and trying again.

4.4

21ST-CENTURY SKILLS

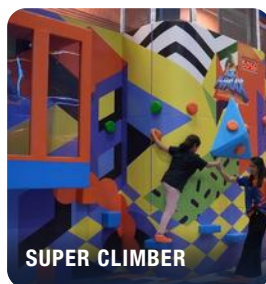

Collaboration, decision-making, resilience and self-regulation — practised, not taught.

Sports-integrated learning. NEP 2020 asks for physical activity woven into the school day, not added as an extra. This is a day of it.

SAFE BY DESIGN

- Trained court monitors in every zone. Supervision arrangement agreed in writing for every school booking. Teachers stay with their groups; our court monitors run the activity.
- Indoor, air-conditioned, weather-proof. No monsoon without, no May heat, no rescheduling because of the sky.
- One venue, one gate. No child crosses a road, boards a boat or leaves the building between arrival and departure.
- The surfaces are the safety system. Padded inflatables, sprung courts, foam pits, soft-play flooring. Mandatory grip socks, included.
- Age-appropriate zones. Below 80 cm play in MiniManiax and Soft Play with their own court monitors; from 80 cm the full park is open to every child. Zip Zag by height (95 cm and above).
- First aid on site. Trained staff and a first-aid station in the park.
- One digital waiver, done once, by the school. No forms on the day.
- Attraction availability guaranteed. If any zone is unavailable on the day for safety reasons, the school is told in advance and may reschedule or cancel with a full refund.
- Food you can sign off on. Vegetarian only, FSSAI-licensed café, drinks included. Allergy and Jain requests taken at booking.
